I certify that _____ (print applicant name) is in good physical condition and can participate in the Camp Program. Participation in any athletic program includes a risk of injury which may range in severity from minor to long-term catastrophic, even death. Although serious injuries are not common in supervised school athletic programs, it is impossible to eliminate this risk. Get Ahead Sports does not screen applicants of these programs for illness, injuries, allergies or other medical conditions, which would prevent or limit participation in any athletic or outdoor program. It is the responsibility of the parent or guardian to evaluate the applicant's ability to participate in any Get Ahead Sports Camp/Clinic/Program.

I, _____ (print parent/guardian name), authorize Get Ahead Sports to administer treatment in any emergency situation requiring medical attention. I also understand that such treatment becomes my sole financial responsibility. I hereby waive and release Get Ahead Sports and its Instructors and Employees, from responsibility for any injury or illness occurring while attending the Camp. This includes any transportation and emergency treatment.

Get Ahead Sports and all staff, including medical staff, will not administer any medication, either prescription or non-prescription, without notification on this application or a separate note by a parent or guardian.

The Staff

Coaches:

Director: Bobby Hurley

Bobby Hurley joined the men's basketball staff at Stevens Institute of Technology as a full-time assistant coach in August of 2003. On June 24, 2008, Director of Athletics Russell Rogers announced the hiring of Bobby Hurley as the new head men's basketball coach at Stevens Institute of Technology. A 2001 graduate of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Hurley was a four-year starter for the Red Hawks. Since graduating from Rensselaer, Hurley has worked with Hoop Group, one of the largest basketball instructional organizations in the country. He served as the director of the Pocono Invitational Basketball Camp in East Stroudsburg, Pa. During the summer of 2007 and once again in 2008, Hurley directed the Get Ahead Sports men's summer basketball league in Hoboken.

Director: Brendan Twomey

In August of 2008, Brendan Twomey was hired as the top assistant coach at Stevens. Twomey, a former standout player at Mount Saint Mary College in Newburgh, N.Y., worked for the National Basketball Association as a Game Scout Logger and Video Coordinator for two years prior to coming to Hoboken. Twomey played professional basketball for three different organizations between 2004 and 2006. In June of 2004, he played for the Carolina Thunder of the American Basketball Association. In January of the following year, the New Windsor, N.Y. native went overseas to play for the Limerick Lions of the Irish Superleague. Nine months later, he joined the Merry Monk Ballina Braves of the Irish Superleague.
