Kids Club Kicks Off at Men's Basketball Game

The Stevens Athletics Kids Club kicked off on Saturday, January 15, 2005 as the Men's Basketball team took on conference rival Centenary.

Fifty-two members ranging from ages two to 17 collected their membership cards and t-shirts, while enjoying the free snack bar, before heading into Canavan Arena.

At halftime, Jake Lefeber, age 7, and Kurt Motyka, age 8, both defeated Attila the duck in the hoop shooting contest. Participants had 30 seconds on the clock to out shoot the duck. Jake and Kurt netted one basket each to the duck's zero.

After Stevens soundly defeated Centenary 93-40, the basketball team led a clinic for 20 members. The Kids worked on passing, shooting and dribbling. Communication

Kids Club events will be communicated as much as possible via email and the web. If you are not receiving Kids Club emails, please send an email to jreed1@stevens.edu. Please include the Kids Club Member's name in the body of the email. The Kids Club homepage will be up and running shortly. The address will be included in the next newsletter.

Special Event: "More than a Game"

On February 5, 2005, Female Kids Club members will be invited to celebrate the 19th Annual National Girls & Women in Sports Day at Stevens Institute of Technology. "More than a Game" is a day dedicated to promoting the involvement of girls and women in sports and fitness activities.

The day will begin at 10:00 a.m. and include sports clinics, lunch, and a variety of activities such as face painting & sign making, before attending the 4:00 p.m. women's basketball game vs. Mount Saint Vincent. Complete the attached form to register. Registration is free to Kids Club Members.

Next Event: "Paint Your Face" Day

On February 5, 2005, any Kids Club member attending the 4:00 p.m. Women's Basketball game vs. Mount Saint Vincent wearing their Stevens Kids Club t-shirt and a painted face will receive a prize. Painted faces should be appropriate to the event and reflect your spirit and support for the basketball team.

The event will also feature a free snack bar and a halftime competition and will serve as another opportunity to pick up membership cards and t-shirts. The event will be run in conjunction with the "More than a Game" event. Send a quick email to let us know you will be there! Jreed1@stevens.edu

Membership Card & T-shirt Pick-up

The next large pick-up of membership cards and t-shirts will be at the February 5, 4:00 p.m. women's basketball game vs. Mount Saint Vincent.

If you missed the kick-off party and are unable to attend February 5, please contact Jessica Reed, Kids Club Coordinator, to make alternative arrangements for card and t-shirt pickup.

Once You Received Your Kids Club Card...

Kids Club members may attend any home Stevens' athletic event for free with their membership card. To receive credit for attendance, members must locate a Stevens Athletics staff member at the event to receive a special hole-punch in their card.

Please note that not all events are staffed with Kids Club staff. Please be polite and patience in your quest to locate the correct staff member! Members are also entitled to a free slice of pizza and a drink (when available) at every home game. Please show your support by wearing your Stevens t-shirt and a smile to all home contests attended.
